

Selecting a Pig for Your Swine Project

Purchasing your pig for show

Review current herd health history

Inquire if there have been any health challenges in the current group of pigs for sale. If so, have they been treated and with what product?

Ask about current vaccinations the pig has received. When were those vaccinations given?

Make sure to get contact information if you have any further questions.